STATE-WIDE REACH

 WHY THIS MATTERS

Awareness is not enough

AI and digital technology are changing how people learn, work, run businesses and find opportunities. But knowing these tools exist is not the same as knowing how to use them.

Many people in Adamawa are curious about technology but have never had the chance to see it up close or use it in a practical way. The summit brings that knowledge closer to the people who need it, in one place, in one day, in plain and useful terms.

 WHO THE SUMMIT REACHES

- Students

- Young people

- Entrepreneurs

- Business owners

- Civil servants

- Professionals

- Educators

- Job seekers

- Tech enthusiasts

Participants should leave knowing what AI can do, what digital tools are available to them, and where they can go next to develop their skills.

— WHAT HAPPENS AT THE SUMMIT

A practical day, not a lecture

Expert Sessions

AI, digital skills, technology and the future of work, explained clearly by people who use them.

Live Demonstrations

Participants see practical AI and digital tools working in real time, not just on slides.

Interactive Learning

Hands-on activities that let people try things for themselves, rather than only watch.

Opportunity Corner
